

The times when life is difficult,
He helps us understand.

He's always there to help us out
Or lend a guiding hand.

He helps us understand the old
And teaches us the new.....

A dad gives us the kind of love
That lasts a Lifetime Through.

IN APPRECIATION

Lamont's family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for the thoughts, prayers, and many acts of kindness extended to each of them during this time.

Freeman
MORTUARY

REMEMBERING Lamont Davis

1972

2024

REMEMBERING LAMONT

Mr. Lamont A. Davis, age 51, of Jefferson City, Mo., passed away Monday, March 11, 2024, at his home.

He was born on November 9, 1972, in Detroit, Michigan, a son of Sam Lewis, Sr. and Willie Mae (Taylor) Davis.

Lamont graduated from MLK High School in Chicago, Illinois. He spent many years in food service and found his passion at JC Manor as a cook, delighting residents with his delicious meals. It was during his time there that Lisa Hake caught his eye. Together, they shared a beautiful journey and were blessed with three wonderful daughters. Their enduring bond spanned an incredible 12 years.

In August of 2022, he made a significant career shift, joining the Missouri Department of Corrections as a Correctional Officer. At the time of his passing, he was dedicated to his role at the Jefferson City Correctional Center.

Throughout his life, Lamont was known for his mischievous nature and adventurous spirit. His brother fondly recalls Lamont's curiosity and eagerness for exploration. Wherever he went, Lamont's sociable personality ensured he made friends easily.

Lamont's greatest joy was found in spoiling his beloved daughters. He was their devoted playmate, often seen at the park, Chuck E. Cheese, and Bonkers, where he would happily get down on the ground to play and draw with them. The sheer delight on their faces when he entered a room was a treasure beyond measure.

Survivors include his son, Lamont Calvin Davis and his mother, Cassandra White-Ellison; three young daughters, Avery Davis, Zahkyra Davis, Nylah Davis and their mother, Lisa Hake; one granddaughter, Amorra Davis; three brothers, Donald Davis, Sam Davis, Jr. and wife DeNitra, and Anthony Davis; numerous nieces, nephews, and many work friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one sister, Andrea Davis and a nephew, Tony Davis.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF Lamont Alphonzo Davis

11:00 a.m., Saturday, March 23, 2024

Freeman Mortuary
Jefferson City, Missouri
Reverend Ralph Lemongelli

Order of Service

Song..... "How Do I Say Goodbye"

Opening/Prayer

Obituary

Speaker..... Donald Davis

Speaker..... Anthony Davis

Song..... "Butterfly Kisses"

Message

Song..... "Amazing Grace-My Chains are Gone"

Closing and Prayer

Dismissal

Honorary Pallbearers

Donald Davis
Sam Davis, Jr.
Anthony Davis
Lamont Calvin Davis
Malcolm Reid